PROFILE

Full Stack Developer with over 2 years of professional experience, specialized in JavaScript, Angular, Node.js and MongoDB. I have worked at technology consultancies (Alten, NTT DATA) and on a product team (Gnuinux Software), taking part in the full development cycle with agile methodologies. I keep building personal projects with Python (FastAPI), Next.js and Docker. I am looking to return to the tech sector in a development role where I can keep growing technically, in a hybrid setup.
